TABLE OF CONTENTS

Yearbook Planning Committee iii
Officers of the Council iv
Yearbook Proposals v
Previously Published Yearbooks vi
Preface xi

SECTION I: THE NEED FOR PROFESSIONALISM IN TECHNOLOGY EDUCATION

—◇Chapter 1 3

The Need for Professionalism in Technology Education: Challenges for the Future

Dr. Anthony F. Gilberti
Indiana State University
Terre Haute, IN

SECTION II: DEFINING PROFESSIONALISM AND LEADERSHIP

—◇Chapter 2 15

Professionalism and Leadership in Technology Education

Dr. David L. Rouch
Ohio Northern University
Ada, OH

—◇Chapter 3 33

Conceptual Explanations of Leadership

Dr. Roy A Buckingham
Indiana State University
Terre Haute, IN

SECTION III: OPPORTUNITIES FOR IMPROVEMENT IN PROFESSIONALISM AND LEADERSHIP

—◇Chapter 4 51

Strategies for Improving Professionalism

Dr. James E. Smallwood
Morehead State University
Morehead, KY

—◇Chapter 5.....69

Professional Associations, Organizations & Other Growth Opportunities

Dr. Edward M. Reeve
Utah State University
Logan, UT

—◇Chapter 6.....97

Developing Effective In-service for Technology Education

Dr. John C. Larkin
Central Connecticut State University
New Britain, CT

—◇Chapter 7 121

Professionalism, Public Relations, and Politics

Dr. Brigitte G. Valesey
International Technology Education Association
Reston, VA

—◇Chapter 8.....139

Identifying and Solving Professional Problems

Dr. Ronald D. Todd and Dr. John R. Karsnitz
The College of New Jersey
Trenton, NJ

SECTION IV: PROFEEESIONALISM AT VARIOUS EDUCATIONAL LEVELS

—◇Chapter 9.....167

Teacher Professionalism in Primary and Secondary Education

Anthony R. Korwin
Oregon State University
Corvallis, OR
and
Joan Haas
Conway Middle School
Orlando, FL

—◇Chapter 10 181

Teacher Professionalism in Higher Education

Dr. John R. Wright
Central Connecticut State University
New Britain, CT

—◇Chapter 11 199

The Chairperson's Role as a Professional in Higher Education

Dr. Michael L. Scott
The Ohio State University
Columbus, OH

—◇Chapter 12 217

The Administrator's Role as a Professional in Higher Education

Dr. M. James Bensen
Bemidji State University
Bemidji, MN

SECTION V: PROFESSIONALISM FOR THE FUTURE

—◇Chapter 13.....235

The Professional's Role in Strategic Planning

Dr. Arthur J. Rosser
Central Missouri State University
Warrensburg, MO

—◇Chapter 14 251

Fostering a Professional Culture in Technology Education

Dr. David H. Devier
Owens Community College
Toledo, OH

—◇Index 271